The Worship of God
Sunday, January 21, 2018

All of us need to belong to a community. In Romans 12:4-5, Paul writes, "For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others." Young and old, we belong to each other. God has a calling for young people which goes beyond the children's sermon, youth group, or emerging adult Bible study. God has a calling for adults to share from experience God's faithfulness. God is calling each of us to participate in the kingdom and show the world that God is indeed making all things new. May we all have our eyes opened to see Jesus in each other as we worship together from generation to generation.
