The Worship of God
Sunday, May 26, 2019

There are certain Sundays when we call to mind specific aspects of life. We know every Sunday is Easter, but there is a Sunday in the spring when we are particularly mindful of our Lord's resurrection from the grave. The last weekend of May is Memorial Day Weekend. The sacrifices of those who have given their lives in service to our country particularly have our attention today. In our service today, we will also give attention to those in our church who have or are currently serving in the military.
