The First Sunday After Easter – Restored for a Mission

We can counsel our fears of what could happen...fearing the worst...or be guided by our faith of what God can do. God specializes in the impossible, like the way Jesus' question changed Peter after his bitter failure. Christ doesn't give up on Peter. The Lord restores him for a mission to "feed his sheep." Emil Brunner wrote, "The church exists by mission as fire exists by burning." As we prepare for worship, how do you need to be restored and renewed? How is Christ calling us as His church to "feed his sheep"?
