Worship...Who I am in Christ...Liberated

The Sabbath principle was created into the fabric of life from the very beginning. The old proverb says, "The bow that is always bent will cease to shoot straight." Yet, observing the Sabbath is more than rest, leisure, or the absence of work. It is a spiritual mindset that re-orders and renews our lives. The Sabbath is a time to find meaning in the moment. It is more than a time for recreation or a break, but "re-creation." It is the day to remember how God has delivered us from our task-masters and whips, who or whatever they are, and set us free. As we consider the freedom and rest of the Sabbath, how will we keep this day "holy"?
