The Surprising Path to Peace

The 23rd Psalm pictures a life of such confidence – God is always leading and providing. It tells a story of someone who trusted God through the twisting turns of life. We discover the surprising path to peace can take us the long way or the “roundabout way.” As we prepare for worship, consider a time that God has taken you the “roundabout way” – even through the wilderness – but you ended up in the right direction on the surprising path to peace.
