

The Worship of God
Sunday, March 4, 2018

There are numerous phrases which we have all heard at various times in our life and they have stuck with us. Phrases like: Actions speak...; A Picture is...; If you don't have something nice to...; just to name a few. Notice the phrases are not complete, but my guess is you finished them without any problem. The same is probably true for the title of today's sermon. A phrase we are familiar with and most likely have either used or had used on us. As we prepare for worship, survey your past week. What was the focus of your most intense conversations? Did each conversation end in the way you wanted it to? Take a moment to clear your mind and put yourself into a posture of worship.
