Mother's Day – The Good Shepherd Sunday

We all need a “Good Shepherd” who will supply our needs, bring our wandering spirits back, and lead us in truth and grace. On this Mother's Day, if our families are going to stay together, we need the model of the “Good Shepherd” who will even lay down his life. Today, where is home for you, no matter the shape of your family? We have a place to belong where “No more a stranger or a guest, but like a child at home.” As we worship today, listen to the voice of the “Good Shepherd” who is calling you to make your house really a home.
