Wearing the Uniform

Hopefully, you will pause for just a moment tomorrow on Memorial Day to remember those who have sacrificed their lives for our country, those who have fought the good fight and are now considered veterans, and those who are currently serving and could at any moment be placed in harm's way. So, instead of waiting until tomorrow, take a moment right now to say a prayer of thanks for those families who have lost a loved one due to their sacrifice. Also offer a prayer of thanks for those who are currently serving and especially those who are deployed right now. And in that frame of mind, offer a word of thanks for all who have faithfully served as soldiers of the cross. Now the tough question, what does your service look like?
