The Generosity and Goodness of God

Life is hard and not always fair. We face disappointments which can discourage us. We can wonder where God is during such difficult times and trials. Yet, your breakthrough is on the way. The good Father is at work right now. We have a loving and good God who hears our cries and prayers. In fact, God loves us more than we love ourselves. The challenge comes in trusting the wisdom and goodness of God to give us exactly what we need. As we prepare for worship, pray to trust the goodness of God who hears our prayers and that our awareness of God's goodness will increase. For what do you need to pray?
